Dedication

We, the Class of 1962, dedicate this yearbook, our final memories of Shenendehowa, to the man who has unselfishly given his own time and skillful guidance to us through our formative high school years. MR. FRANCIS BAKER, we thank you.

The Class of 1962 salutes Mr. Rodney O. Winans for his forty-five years of dedicated service in the field of education. For the last thirty-nine years he has served as the District Superintendent of Schools in southern Saratoga County, during which time he has been instrumental in the formation of the Ballston, Stillwater, Mechanicville and Shenendehowa Central Schools.

Dear Friends,

It has been a very wonderful experience for me to stay in your community and in the U. S. as a whole.

Every bit of my stay has counted a great deal in promoting the purpose of The American Field Service—to inculcate friendship and understanding among countries. I have learned tremendous things about the U. S. that have added to my understanding of the country and its people; and I hope in the same way, I was able to give you the same feeling about my country, The Philippines.

My stay has been so wonderful and fascinating—all the experiences I have had, the colored leaves, snow and white Christmas, all have added color to my stay. All the kindness and consideration shown the year round by my family, my teachers, classmates, the students of the Shenendehowa Central School and the people of the Shenendehowa community are things I won't forget.

Lastly, your friendliness will always remain in my mind; and I wish to thank you all for making my stay a success.

Foreign

Very sincerely,

Alice B. Lazarte

Exchange

Last summer, as a participant in the American Field Service program, I spent eight weeks in Mol, Belgium. During this visit, I was not a tourist but a member of the Louis Luyten family. Living the life of a typical Belgian girl, I was able to learn some of the customs and culture of the Flemish people.

Like all the other 950 students who spent the summer abroad, I became very fond of my new acquaintances and am looking forward to renewing my visit.

I would like to thank sincerely all the people in the Shenendehowa area who made this trip possible. It was indeed the greatest experience of my life. I shall always be grateful to all of you. I also hope that the AFS program is continued in the SCS district. Then the motto of this program will become a reality. "Walk together, talk together, O ye peoples of the earth; then and only then, shall ye have peace."

Christmas seemed different to Alice this year; mainly because it was!

We're building,, you know.

$VPS = K \sqrt{\frac{1}{g}}$. . . I think . . .

Our school years seem to have taken up an amazingly short span of time. High school is a very small percentage of one's life; it is also an important one.

The Class of 1962 has had the major distinction of being the first to attend all twelve years of school in the Shenendehowa Central School District. For the first three grades we went to small schoolhouses with three or more grades to a room. During the fourth grade, when we transferred from these schools, we were amazed that this huge building could be our own. It was wonderful, however, to meet students from another section of the district and to be one part of a large school.

After a few years passed, we were through with elementary and junior high and found ourselves at the threshold of our freshman year of high school.

As freshmen we were part of an experiment. A number of students were selected for special enrollment in the first Earth Science class at Shenendehowa. Mr. Smith taught us basic astronomy, mineralogy, geology, oceanography, meteorology, climatology and geography. We took field trips to the Dudley Observatory in Albany and the Hayden Planetarium in New York to further our growing knowledge of astronomy. At Dudley we also got personal experience on the effect of below-freezing temperatures on the human body; we almost froze!

Our freshman class officers were Judy Eckert, President; Isabel Barrett, Vice President; Diana Parazynski, Secretary; and Bob Mager, Treasurer.

The P.T.A. gave awards for individual progress as students and citizens to Mary Ann Genevick and Lee Brenn. Joseph Dworakowski was commended for excellence in a course in agriculture. David Harlow brought further recognition to us by winning the award for outstanding achievement in the study of Latin, which is granted by the Association of Teachers of Latin.

During our sophomore year we earned our money in the traditional manner, by maintaining the coat check at basketball games. We elected Dave Harlow our president, Judy Eckert our vice president, Gail Henness our secretary and Geraldine Bilinski our class treasurer. Geraldine had her hands full balancing the books during our card sale, because we did fairly well.

The students who won the Parent-Teachers Association Citizenship Awards in 1960 were Patricia Dickerman and Francis Flavin.

The main events of our junior year were the receiving of our class rings and our Junior Prom. Recognizing the fact that experience would be necessary to manage these jobs well, we elected officers who were familiar with executive work. Gloria Sicko was the president; Judy Eckert was the vice president for the second year in a row; Geraldine Bilinski did our secretarial work, and Dave Harlow controlled our budget. To increase our treasury we sold candy, magazine subscriptions and sweatshirts.

On the day that we received our rings, we were so proud that we rushed around the school displaying them to underclassmen and the teachers. We compared the way our initials were engraved on the inside, argued whether the ring should be worn on the left or the right hand and compared the difference in size between the boys' and girls' rings.

We held our Prom "Moonlight Fantasia" on May 6, 1961, in the Sheraton Ten-Eyck Hotel and hired Dino Cimino to provide the music. Gail Henness was chosen our lovely queen during the Grand March. Her court consisted of Isabel Barrett, Vivien Beck, Geraldine Bilinski, Marilyn Greene, Carol Kuhlberg, Miriam Shehadeh and Sandra Turiel. Each had a very proud escort; all were radiantly happy.

During our eleventh year we were introduced to physics or chemistry and to the danger of procrastinating on labs. We studied American history like mad to get a decent mark on tests because we soon learned that Mr. Tate wasn't kidding when he said, "I seldom give a mark above 90%."

History

However, we somehow managed to survive, and many of us received special honors. Bill Scanlon was sponsored by the American Legion Post #1450 to attend Empire Boys' State at Colgate University. There he learned a great deal about American democracy. Martha Waterman received the PRIX D'HONNEUR for outstanding achievement in the study of French. Judy Carlson was granted the Miss Bessie M. Rulison Award on the basis of her grades, adaptability and originality of thought. Ann Kidalowski was the candidate for the National Council Teachers of English Examination for scholarship recommendation.

Ten of our class were inducted as juniors into the National Honor Society. Judith Carlson, James Easton, Francis Flavin, Carol Hatlee, Priscilla Hubbard, Carol Kuhlberg, Ronda Limbacher, Joan Milczarek, Gloria Sicko and Miriam Shehadeh possessed the necessary qualities of superior leadership, promising scholarship, unselfish service and good character.

We were represented by Jim Easton, Francis Flavin, Carol Kuhlberg and Gloria Sicko at the Syracuse University Citizenship Conference.

The P.T.A. lauded Carol Kuhlberg and Frank Parker as the juniors who exemplified the qualities of outstanding citizenship and scholarship.

Katherine Micklos was fortunate enough to spend the summer in Belgium as Shenendehowa's American Field Service representative. She learned a great deal and has since told us many interesting facts about the Belgian people and their customs.

We began our senior year by welcoming Alice Bobis Lazarte, our Foreign Exchange Student from the Philippines, to Shenendehowa. She lived with Gail Sauerbrey and her family.

We elected Bob Mager as our capable president, Dave Harlow as vice president (his third class office), Carol Hatlee as our note-taking secretary, and Bob Greene as our worrying treasurer.

Senior activities were hectic! We gave Bob Mager a hard time. Dissension and discontent over the date for our Senior Ball split the class into opposing factions. Finally we decided that it would be held Graduation night. We accidentally broke bottles while selling soda at basketball games. Marilyn Greene was saddled with the worry of getting the yearbook together. Martha Waterman presented Student Council views to the administration. Carol Kuhlberg served as president of both Y-Teens and National Honor Society; it's no wonder that we elected her to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Award. She deserved it! Joan Milczarek's outstanding academic achievement, good character and superior intellectual promise in the field of science earned her the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award. Kathy Micklos won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award.

The seniors tapped into the National Honor Society included Sue Carlo, Marilyn Greene, Dave Harlow, Alice Lazarte, Frank Parker and Martha Waterman.

A record breaking number of thirteen members of the Class of 1962 won primary State Regents Scholarships. They were Judith Carlson, Thomas Doring, Francis Flavin, Marilyn Greene, Emil Habesch, David Harlow, Ann Kidalowski, Carol Kuhlberg, Ronda Limbacher, Gene Male, Joan Milczarek, Frank Parker and Martha Waterman.

Throughout our four high school years we argued with Mr. Baker over class business, with Mrs. Bryant to get out of study hall and with Mrs. Griffin over everything. We weren't afraid to offer and defend our opinions.

Looking back it doesn't seem possible that we've spent twelve years of our lives in school already. This was a good beginning and we'll do our best to make our community and our school proud of us in the future.

Remen

We spent a good share of our high school career in the Guidance Office, especially when we started to worry about college.

We were just about exhausted after the Prom, but it was great fun.

This is a typical math class with 75% of the students not paying attention.

Whee! We MET that final deadline!

That pile of State Library books looked awfully big, didn't it College English Seniors?

Through our rings we shall remain a part of Shenendehowa for years to come.

Our Junior Prom

On May 6, 1961, Susan Shopmyer crowned Gail Henness our Junior Prom Queen.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is the most significant organization at Shenendehowa due to its recognition of quality and achievement.

Each year the student body eagerly anticipates the induction ceremony, during which select students are admitted as members on the basis of the Society's four qualifications of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Tension runs high during the ceremony as the audience tries to foretell who will be tapped for membership.

Moving-up Day

Moving-up Day is an annual festival sponsored by the National Honor Society. Each class traditionally moves up to the next grade. To add to the fun each class wears its adopted color: for the seventh grade the color is green; for the eighth it's pink; freshmen, red; sophomores, yellow; juniors, blue; and seniors, white. While wearing the class colors, we march around the school building so that the elementary faculty and students may participate vicariously in the proceedings. We then march into the auditorium where we observe the senior skit and have the actual moving-up procedure. For the rest of the afternoon we have inter-class competition and informal activities.

Student Council

Row 2: Katherine DePuccio, Harriet Brown, Jolen Lykens, Cheryl Putnam, Carolyn Van Allen, Alice Lazarte
Row 3: Raymond Dahoda, Harry Bloodgood, Gene Male, Edward Holohan, David Simpson, Stanley Kowaleski, Ray Hickox.

The elected representatives of the Student Council vote on matters of interest to the student body. Martha Waterman presides over the students as they organize the basketball games and the American Field Service Drive.

Plans for future years include the publication of a handbook patterned after the Faculty Handbook for the students' benefit.

Shen-Aides

"She wants my visa?"

Shen-Aides is a student service organization, launched in 1959 by Mr. Kerner and designed to help the school community as much as possible. The body exists, with Mr. Leslie in the advisory position, to assist students, faculty and visitors and to help maintain a school of which we can all be proud.

Our band, under the direction of Mr. William MacElroy, is an endeavor to offer students a character-forming, worthwhile experience which is lasting. Mr. MacElroy desires to have a well-blended, well-instrumented band, capable of playing good music regularly.

He has been working towards this goal since 1950, when he first offered free instrumental lessons for the students attending fifteen different schools. Having worked from that meager beginning, our band now travels annually to parades and plays as far away as Hoosic Falls.

Majorettes

The Majorettes have been a recognized club since 1955; they endeavor to offer capable baton-twirlers who present a good impression of the organized activities at our school. The advisor, Miss Scott, arranges for the group to march in parades, present exhibits, and participate in exchange programs with other schools.

Senior Chorus

This year our new choral director, Mr. Crowder, has worked long and hard to instill his students with the dynamic attitude which is necessary for good choral singing.

His innovation of after-school rehearsals on Tuesday was instituted for the benefit of those students who are unable to schedule chorus as a regular class.

After repeated practice, the group gave a short Thanksgiving Concert which was well received. With this accomplishment to their credit, the singers then prepared an inspiring Christmas Program. An annual Spring Concert is also given, at which time soloists are heard and the boys' and girls' ensembles perform.

A total of thirteen students were honored this year by being chosen for the All-County Chorus. All the members of chorus were inspired by Mr. Crowder's moving direction and the quality of the music he presented.

The girls' and boys' ensembles are established for the purpose of giving students who are especially interested in music an opportunity to employ a more liberal form of music than can be handled in chorus.

Girls' ensemble is a formally organized group which generally performs at choral assemblies and night concerts.

However, boys' ensemble is a more casual group which meets frequently to just play and sing in true "Kingston Trio" fashion.

Future Teachers of America

F.T.A. prepares for their dance. There's Lynda, pouting as usual.

Although the Shenendehowa Chapter of the Future Teachers of America has been in existence for only three years, it is already a most dynamic force in school activities.

Under the direction of Mr. Tate, the Future Teachers present themselves as useful assistants in our school and community. However, all is not work. They also have an annual dance and visit various secondary and elementary teacher preparatory institutions.

Future Farmers

The Future Farmers of America hope to gain a realistic insight into the problems and advantages of modern agricultural methods. Under the supervision of Mr. Oakes, and with Walter Gorski as president, the boys serve the school and gain practical experience by managing a dairy bar at basketball games and the Community Festival, organizing a yearly dance, dairy judging, and by distributing and selling eggs.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses of America annually award a $100 scholarship to a club member who has enrolled in a school of nursing.

The purpose of the Future Nurses is to find what nursing requires and offers, and to help members make a wise decision about either a professional or practical nursing career. However, if a member decides against nursing as a career, she has gained considerable knowledge about personal and community health.

Yorker Club

The New York State Yorker Club was begun in 1942, when Dr. Clifford L. Lord and Miss Mary E. Cummings issued an invitation to the schools of New York State to form Yorker Clubs.

This club has now grown into a powerful organization with several hundred chapters and over 9000 members. Their story is a dramatic one of service to the cause of history, with tens of thousands of young people, from the seventh grade through the twelfth, learning more and more about their communities, their state, and their country. Their movement has never faltered through the years, largely because of the wisely based efforts of devoted teacher-sponsors.

Two such devoted people are Mr. Payne and Mrs. Durand who devote their time and effort to maintain a worthwhile and useful organization for those students who have an interest in history, local and state-wide. Our Yorker Club gives these students a concrete opportunity to further their knowledge of New York State history through various exhibitions and displays.

Our chapter also participates in field trips, local jamborees, and in the annual State Convention.

Y-Teens

The purpose of the Y-Teen organization is "to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

The high ideals of this club are successfully followed through by the president, Carol Kuhlberg, and the sponsors, Mrs. Frier and Miss Beauford.

Hi-Y

Our Hi-Y Club is sponsored by the Schenectady Y.M.C.A.; moreover, this also includes membership in the National Hi-Y.

The members are expected to know and help their club achieve the Hi-Y purpose: "To create, maintain and extend through the school and community high standards of Christian Character." They are expected to attend meetings regularly, accept certain responsibilities, and work to make the club more effective in its Service, Educational, Sports, Social, and Worship programs.

Model United Nations

The first step in the study of social studies is to approach history realistically. The Model United Nations, which is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., was organized at Shenendehowa with this purpose in mind.

Ten representatives from each of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes have been appointed to represent our school in the delegations for India, Nationalist China, Nigeria, Cuba, Lebanon, and Byelorussia.

Under the energetic guidance of Mrs. Durand and Mr. Tate, these students do research and analyze current events to personify accurately the views held by member nations of the U. N.

Frank Parker is the elected vice president of the organization; he regularly attends meetings with vice presidents of area schools to make the Model United Nations an effective body.

The Forum was published by the Journalism Class and interested students as a means of keeping the general student body informed of the events which take place within the school and of acquainting the staff with the problems involved in publishing a newspaper. Under the direction of Mr. Samuel Richman, the group published two issues which were printed by Mr. Vasiliou's Print Shop. The Forum proved to be an interesting and educational endeavor for all those involved.

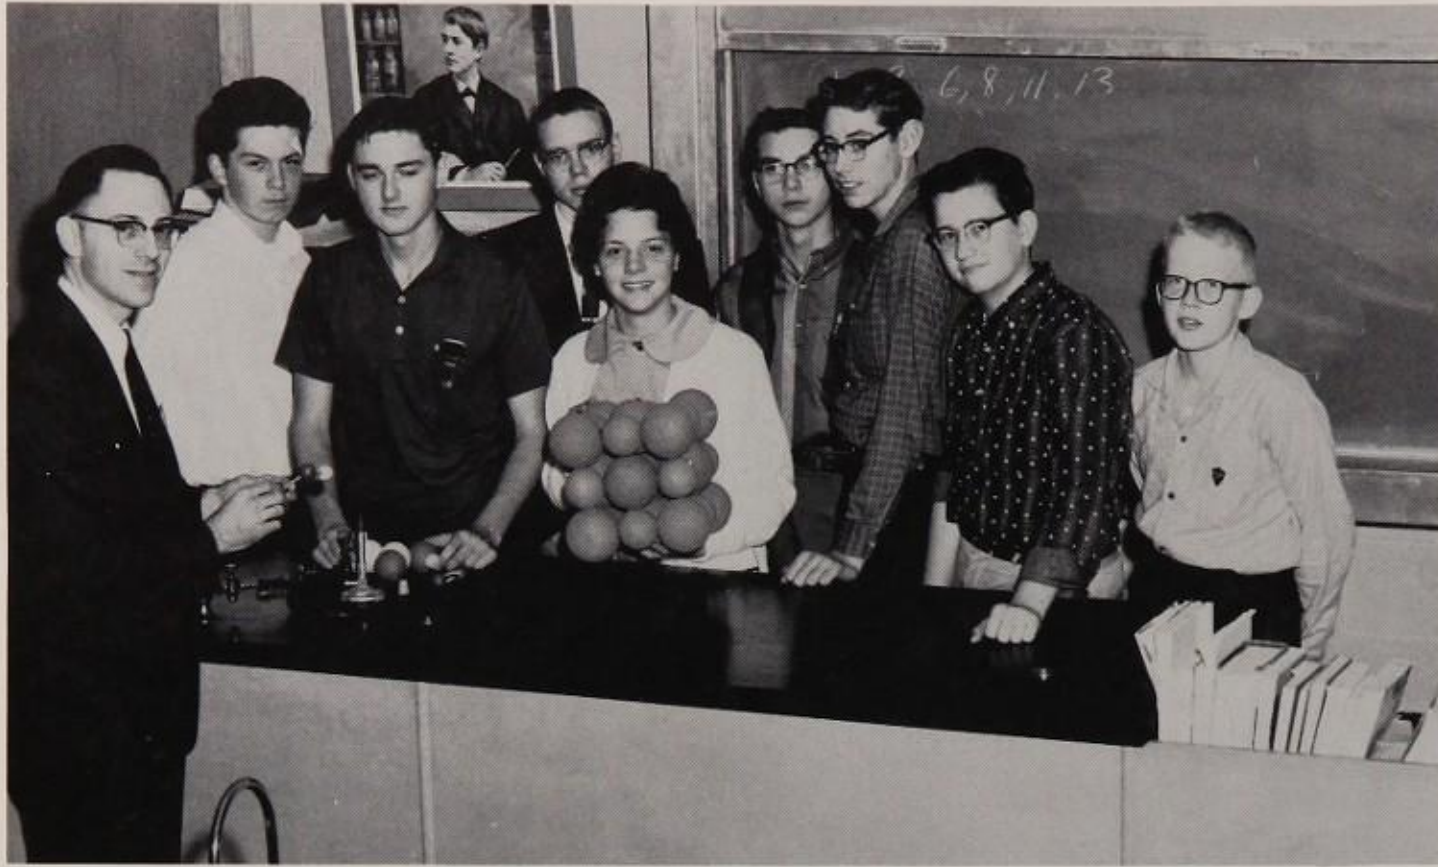

Bible Club

The Bible Club was formed at our school to give interested students an opportunity to study the Bible in a non-denominational atmosphere. Weekly meetings are held for which the members endeavor to have either a good speaker or a pertinent film. Mr. Waterman hopes to bring to students a better understanding of the Bible.

Science Club

Mr. Barnhart, Charles Kowsky, George Gregoire, Richard Larmon, Pat Dickerman, Bob Kolasien-ski, David George, Mark Hatlee, Thomas Laponia

The Science Club at Shenendehowa is a small organization composed of a few students who desire to enter a scientific field as their life's work.

Audio-Visual Club

The Audio-Visual Club is a service organization, sponsored by Mr. Paine, in which the members are available to help run teaching-aid machines for the faculty.

Chess Club

Chess is not as complicated as it might seem to the observer, but it is necessary to develop a strategy to outwit the opponent in attack and defense. Mr. Greenberg has promoted clear, logical thinking and good sportsmanship among his players since 1959 when he organized the club. Our players have chess meets with area schools to improve their ability and intensify their awareness of the absorbing depth of chess.

The absorbing depth . . .

Humanities

This picture reflects the spirit and purpose of the Humanities Club in developing creative thinking and an acute awareness of art, atmosphere and people.

The members visit art museums, engage guest speakers, and attend art lectures and films in an effort to achieve those aims.

Compliments of
A FRIEND

The staff of the 1962 Carillon wishes to thank the businesses which helped make this book possible by their advertisements.

We wish to thank everyone who had a part in the publication of our Carillon. First of all, thanks to Mr. Richman for a fine job as advisor and to Mr. Spencer for his unique suggestions for our art and layout. We appreciate Mr. Baker's tolerance of our repeated invasions of his typing room. And what would the yearbook be without our faithful photographer, Joe?

Those who have labored on the staff of the Carillon know best what the publication of a yearbook entails. Thanks to the Literary Editor, Ann Kidalowski; Head Typist, Susan Carlo; Faculty and Administration Editor, Carol Kuhlberg; Photography Editors, Lee Brenn and Frank Parker; Art Editors, Geraldine Bilinski and Bob Adsit; Sports Editors, Gail Henness and Bill Scanlon; Elementary Section Editor, Gloria Sicko; Underclassmen Section Editor, Jim Easton; Editor of the Senior Section, Diana Parazynski; Clubs and Activities Editor, Judy Carlson; Business and Advertising Managers, Bob Greene and Wayne Lillibridge; Managing Editor, Kathy Micklos; and Editor-in-Chief, Marilyn Greene.

Although it is impossible to mention all those who have contributed to our book, their help and guidance are sincerely appreciated.
